

What is your position at Natexo?

Head of Production

Tell us about your functions:

I'm in charge of the Production team in France as well as the rest of the production operations of Natexo, around the world. My job is to coordinate the technical and graphic requests made by the Account Managers and Project Managers. I define the priorities in order to create a smooth work flow and enable the teams to meet deadlines for all projects.

Vivien Daniel,
Head of Production

Since when have you worked for Natexo?

I arrived at Natexo in May 2012 as an intern while I was still in college. I haven't moved since.

What do you like most about your job?

The thing I like the most is to be in the center of all the production line. This enables me to optimize the work schedule which in turn enables us to launch high quality campaigns.

Which are your favorite e-commerce websites?

I love Pixmania. That's where I find the best deals for photographic gear. I'm also a big fan of private sale websites such as Brandalley.

Any anecdote you might want to share?

To most english speakers and some spanish speakers, my name is easily misunderstood with a girl's name (Viviana, Vivian). At one of the company's Summit, many of my colleagues were shocked to learn I was a man.
